

Royal Manitoba Theatre Centre Research Guide for Female Playwrights

All plays listed in this research guide are by female playwrights, or other contributors such as translators and composers.

This research guide includes all of the information needed to make an archival request at the Archives of Manitoba – the item description, date of the item and the location code. See the example below. The information in this research guide is accurate as of March 22, 2018. Please refer to the Archives of Manitoba's Keystone Database for the most updated list of files.

Records are stored onsite in the vaults of the Archives of Manitoba (200 Vaughan Street, Winnipeg) or offsite in their storage facility. The location of each file is provided in the research guide.

Request forms are available at the Archives of Manitoba. All records must be viewed in the reading room at the Vaughan Street location. Request forms for records stored offsite can be submitted online. For more information, please visit the Archives of Manitoba website.

Restrictions: Photographs can be viewed but cannot be copied without the permission of the theatre.

Records for productions after 1998 are located at the Royal MTC building (174 Market Avenue, Winnipeg). Researchers who require access should contact archives@royalmtc.ca.

This research guide is divided into two sections: the first includes plays with records located at the Archives of Manitoba; the second section lists plays for which records have not yet been transferred to the Archives of Manitoba (1999-2000 to 2017-2018 season).

Note: Some files may contain records for more than one production. The dates listed reflect all of the productions in the file.
