WINNIPEG, November 7, 2016 – Experience an engaging and provocative production as Royal MTC presents 23.5 HOURS from November 17 to December 3 at the Tom Hendry Warehouse.

Once a beloved high school teacher, Tom’s reputation is destroyed after he’s accused of a crime. His homecoming reopens old wounds that test friendships and loyalty in this edgy examination of the truths we’re prepared to accept from the people we love. Rather than focus on the ‘did he or didn’t he’, playwright Carey Crim leaves us to sort through the aftermath. This cautionary tale explores the grey areas between courts and our conscience and about the limits of our own loyalty to each other.

23.5 HOURS stars Jonathan Watton as Tom Hodges, Amanda Lisman as Leigh Hodges, Tristan Carlucci as Nicholas Hodges, Arne MacPherson as Bruce Wagner and Lisa Norton as Jayne Wagner.

The creative team behind the production includes Co-Director Karyl Lynn Burns, Co-Director Katharine Farmer, Assistant Director Kevin Klassen, Set & Costume Designer Brian Perchaluk, Lighting Designer Larry Isacoff, Sound Designer Chris Brett, Stage Manager Paul Skirzyk, and Apprentice Stage Manager Paige Lewis.
