"...honest, heartfelt, and abounding with persistent hope..." -Broadway World

WINNIPEG, January 13, 2020 – Ice cream. Hugging. Friendly cats. A seven-year-old boy starts a list of wonderful things in the world to cheer up his mom. As he matures and faces his own challenges, the growing list inspires him to find meaning in everyday life.

Told with the help of the audience, this charming one-man show is a joyful act of collective storytelling that reveals how the connections we make are what keep us strong. Funny, poignant and full of hope, Every Brilliant Thing might just change the way you see the world.

EVERY BRILLIANT THING stars Michael Torontow.

The creative team behind the production is led by Director Steven Schipper, Production Designer Joe Pagnan, Stage Manager Alana Freistadt and Apprentice Stage Manager Karen Sewell.
